

THE ART OF PARTICIPATORY LEADERSHIP

MAY 6 -9, 2020
YASHODRA ASHRAM,
KOOTENAY BAY, BC

HOSTING MEANINGFUL CONVERSATIONS THAT MATTER

HOW CAN WE MOST EFFECTIVELY RISE AND RESPOND TO THE URGENT CALL FOR CLIMATE ACTION?

Join us on the beautiful shores of Kootenay Lake to deep dive into three days of hands-on learning and skill building in the Art of Hosting. Come away with new understanding of theories, methods, tools and practices that leaders and change-makers can use to co-create solutions to complex challenges like climate change. This retreat will build your capacity for incorporating collaborative solutions, conflict resolution and collective wisdom building into your personal and organizational leadership practice with a focus on community action.

For more information and to register: visit <https://cbeen.ca/art-of-hosting>. By registering here, you will also be registered through Selkirk College CEWT and will be eligible for a tuition tax credit. Register early as spaces are limited.

