

ART OF HOSTING KARLSKRONA

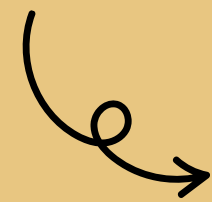

16th - 19th June 2025

Karlskrona, Sweden

INVITATION

WHAT IF THE WAY WE MEET AND CONVERSE COULD SHAPE THE FUTURE?

"Peace is not the absence of conflict, but the ability to cope with it."

Mahatma Gandhi

THE WORLD

We live in a time of rapid change. Old systems are breaking down, and new patterns are just beginning to emerge. We stand at the edge of the unknown — where things feel unstable, yet full of possibility. In moments like these, how we gather and hold space for each other matters. We, as humans, can use our strengths, gifts, and talents to weave the connections required to move beyond conflicts, build stability and resilience within chaos.

ART OF HOSTING

The “Art of Hosting” is a method, a practice, a mindset, and a way of creating spaces where people come together — to talk, but to listen, to understand, and to co-create meaningful action. It is about learning to be present in complexity, to notice emerging patterns, and to build the confidence to hold space for transformation.

This is not a typical training. It is an experience. A practice ground. A space to expand your capacity to lead and hold conversations that matter.
